MEMORANDA.

The H. B. Co's. bark Prince of Wales, James Anderson commander, left Victoria on Sunday, 10th inst., 1870, for the coast of South America, via the Strait of Magellan. The bark, which was built at the Victoria Shipyard, was under the command of Mr. Anderson, who has been in the service of the company for many years. The bark is a fine sloop, and is well fitted out for service. The company has a large stock of goods on hand, and is prepared to supply the public at the lowest prices.

The Mendacious Colonist.

Our mendacious contemporary, the Colonist, gave utterance to one of its characteristic utterances on Saturday. We regret that we are compelled to intrude upon our readers to notice its mendacious utterances; but we shall do so as briefly as we can and save the public as much as possible. First, then, it has stated that the proprietor of the STAND-ARD is "apparently preparing to abandon an enterprise in which no man in the full possession of his senses would have embarked."

Now, this statement is wholly false; not a word of truth in it. It is far more likely that we shall have the unpleasant duty to perform of writing the epitaph of the Colonist, rather than abandon the STANDARD. Let any one take up the two papers and look at the two outside pages of each. In the STAND-ARD are to be found twelve columns of advertisements. In the Colonist there are about seven columns of patent medicine and mere fill-up or non-paying advertisements, out of twelve. Those that are paid for are of the same value as those published in the Standard at a price "next to nothing," scarcely enough to pay for setting up the type.

In the inside of the STANDARD there are seven columns of advertisements; in the Colonist scarcely six columns. We have no need to slanderingly make this analysis of the patronage of the two journals, not from any wish "to root out the Colonist," but simply in self-defence, and to enable the public to judge for themselves, and not be misled by slanderingly the offspring of envy and malice. The charge in the Colonist that the STANDARD or its proprietor had said "root out the Colonist" is untrue—wholly so, for the utterances of the STANDARD and its proprietor have invariably been from the outset to the present, "fair competition and no monopoly;" "fair prices and no extortion." Now, we have alluded to the enormous cost of telegrams, as being due to the unjustifiable conduct of certain parties, who are very well known. We have refused from publishing the details, under the hope that the matter might be satisfactorily adjusted. The matter is still unsettled; but if we are prepared to pay a high price for the proof that the Telegraph Company is supplying the telegrams to the Colonist at one price, and to the STANDARD at another; or in other words, that we are paying more every week to the Telegraph Company than the Colonist, for the same number of words. Now, we ask every lover of fair play, every one who is taxed to contribute the $4,500 as a subsidy for the support of the company,—"if that is fair play?" We ask any merchant, any one, whether he is willing to pay a high price for telegrams when his neighbor next door gets his telegrams at a lower price? Would the mercantile community submit to such a thing? We have, however, been submitting to it and paying under protest for some time past, hoping for a satisfactory settlement.
But that is not all: Everybody knows that before the STANDARD was published there were but a few inches of "last night's dispatches" published in the Colonist, but occasionally supplemented with "delayed dispatches." If we had space we would republican the whole from January to the starting of the STANDARD, and we may do so, to show how little telegraphic news the public got for nearly six months of this year.
However, the STANDARD started with a content with the company for 600 words a day.
It is sooner was this supplied to us than a letter came from the Telegraph office that the Colonist would take 200 words daily, and if we did not take the same, we could not have telegrams; and no sooner had we notified the company to take them under that, than another letter came that the Colonist would take 2,000 words, at a censured, for seven days in the week. The bill per week have amounted to $120 and upwards. We have not space to enter into further detail. But we ask, do we not justly complain against this wicked combination? and is there a soul who knows the Colonist who can conceive any other object that it had in view in raising the number of words, except "to root out" the STANDARD. But, perish who think that the STANDARD will perish, for we will this community tolerate such a condition of things as we have just explained?

NANAIMO MEETING.—Singular as it may appear, the Colonist made no mention of the Nanaimo meeting, whatever, although it had several other Nanaimo items, until after the communication from a highly respectable citizen of Nanaimo appeared in this paper.
Then it said that the meeting was large and important, but did not state the number.
Now, whether large or small, we are satisfied that our authority is too accurate to mistake numbers. There are several views of the bay, for the amusement of families and children, who wish to have a game of quoits can be kept on the premises.

CANDIDATES.—The prospect of an election always brings out a certain number of candidates; and the general anticipation that those who may be elected will not be subject to the whims or caprices of the Executive Council, seems likely to bring quite a number of candidates to the surface.
In the Nanaimo-Cornwall District, we hear of Wallace & Hutcheon, Victoria, and the Hon.
Mr. Robson, editor of the Colonist, and the Hon.
Victoria District No. 2—that is the District extending from Salt Spring Island and Che-manus to Sooke, including all except Victoria City and Esquimalt. town—we have heard the names of B. W. Pease, Esq., Henry Nathan, Esq., and of course, the present member, Mr. DeCosmos. For Victoria City and Esquimalt town District, the names of Messrs. Helmenck, Drake, DeCosmos, His Worship Mayor Trimble, A.
R. Robertson, and H. Nathan. In New Westminster District there are two candidates, W. J. Armstrong, Esq., and Hugh Nelson, Esq. Mr. Brown has withdrawn in favor of Mr. Nelson. For Yale, it is proposed that Mr. Barnard will be a candidate. In Lillooet District Mr. T. B. Humphreys is squaresly in the field as a candidate, and it is said that Mr. Geo. A. Kelly is a candidate for the same District. For Cariboo District, it is at present undecided who will stand, but Messrs. J. S. Thompson, C. Booth, H. Havelock, G. A. Walkem and R. W. W.
Harrall are mentioned as parties likely to become candidates. In Kootenay District, M.
Hicks, Esq., and another. The refusal of Gov. Musgrave to make provision for the payment of the reasonable expenses of members operates as a hindrance to a full and fair representation of the country. Let the electors be cautious as to whom they pledge themselves to support.

FROM THE WEST COAST.—The schooner Alert, Capt. Spring, arrived on Saturday from the West Coast, where she has been on a trading voyage. She brings a cargo of fish, oil and skins. We learn from Captain Spring that the whalers at Barclay Sound have not caught any whales yet, on account of them being too far out at sea. In two weeks more they will get close in, and then we may expect to hear a good account of them.

FROM THE MAINLAND.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, arrived from the Mainland on Saturday afternoon, with about 15 passengers, among whom were Mr. Finlay-son, Esq., Miss Finlayson, Mrs. Ogilvie, F. H.
Lamb, F. Page, C. Loat, W. Leech, Rev.
Gibbelle and Crosby. There was a Cariboo mail and express and about $60,000 in treasures for the Banks.

ROBBERY.—Early on Saturday morning the store of Mr. Clanton, on Yates street, was broken into and robbed of a large quantity of clothing, &c., valued at about $150. The thieves are supposed to have been Indians.
The loss will fall very heavy on Mr. Clanton, as he has just commenced business. The police are doing everything in their power to find out who the parties are.

MAINLAND ITEMS.—The Guardian publishes a requisition to W. J. Armstrong, to which a large number of names are appended, asking him to stand for Representative of New Westminster District. Mr. Armstrong has consented. The outward arrived from Yale, on Friday, bringing several passengers and $60,000 in treasure.

FIRE.—In all parts of the Island there are bush fires that are becoming very dangerous to the crops. At Skinner's farm, which is occupied by Mr. Williams, large trenches have had to be dug around the fields of oats to keep the fire away from them. A watchman has to be kept night and day, on several farms in the vicinity of Victoria.

The steamer Enterprise, on Saturday, saw the schooner Dreadnaught and H. L. Tierman in the Gulf of Georgia, the latter bound to the Hawaiian Islands, from Burrard Inlet, and the former to San Francisco with a cargo of stone from New Castle Island. The Victoria mail will call here before proceeding to sea.

SANICHO.—A man who was working for George Luxon, North Saanich, on Monday last presented a double-barrelled shot-gun at his employer. Mr. Anderson, J. P., issued a warrant for his arrest, but the vagabond has escaped into the bush. The farmers are alarmed about him.

VICTORIA DISTRICT NO. 2.—The Colonist said on Saturday that Mr. DeCosmos had failed to give satisfaction in this District that he represents. If the Colonist has a candidate who is willing to stump the District with Mr. DeCosmos, he will soon find out that as usual there is no dependence on the Colonist statements. Where is the candidate?

FRENCH BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—After the re-opening of the French Hospital, to which large and commodious additions have been built, it has been decided to admit ladies and children into the Society, with all the privileges attached. Steam, shower and other baths are free for all the members.

FARWELL PERFORMANCE.—The Nelson Brothers will give their farewell performance this evening at 8 o'clock. There will be a thorough change in the performance, and acrobatic feats will be performed, which has not been seen here before, and are not likely to be seen again. Give them a full test for the last performance.

The Bark Shooting Star was 17 days from San Francisco to Royal Roads. She was detained 5 days by the smoke in the straits.
The Captain says there is more smoke in the Straits this year than there has been for several years past.

PASSED UP.—The ship Shooting Star, from San Francisco, took a pilot outside the harbor yesterday morning, and proceeded on her voyage to Nanaimo this morning.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—On Saturday night, at 10 o'clock, Dalby's tannery, on the Saanich road, caught fire and became a total loss.
The buildings were insured for $3,000, and the loss will be about $6,000.

FOR PORTLAND.—The steamer California, Capt. Hayes, will leave for Portland on Wednesday morning, at daylight. There are a large number of families going away on her.

LILLOOET.—Mr. G. A. Kelly publishes a humorous address to the people of Lillooet-Clinton, as a candidate for the Council.

FROM COMOX.—The sloop Alford arrived from Comox last night, with a full cargo of farm produce.

BOARDING HOUSE, VIEW STREET ABOVE
DOUGLAS.—Mrs. Ridgway informs her friend and the public, that she is now prepared to provide them with good board and lodging.
The table is supplied with the very best.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY STANDARD.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

PARIS, August 9.—There is an immense uprising of the people of France to repel the Prussian invasion. It is said, officially, that two million of men are ready to march, and that the reserve corps will number one million. The people are clamorous for organization and leaders. There was taken by the of the Ministry. Changarnier left his residence this morning to seek a command at headquarters. Thousands of people accompanied him to the railway. The morning papers say, nothing is certain concerning the course of Austria. Prussia is kept quiet with promises just now. The journals announce that Italy will send 100,000 troops to assist France.

PARIS, August 9.—The following official dispatch is dated at Hombourg, in Palatinate, 8:40 a. m.:
Yesterday, after a battle, the enemy retreated in the greatest disorder, and the French artillery adapted to make a stand at Mekebsburg. There was taken by the Bavarians. The enemy resisted in route to Bitch. The cavalry of Wirtemberg captured the enemy's stores and four pieces of artillery. The enemy's retreat was covered by wounded covered the route of the retreating army. This morning we have occupied Hagenau, which was held by the enemy. The German troops occupied both banks of the Saar. The enemy occupied Saar-Gueman and Forbach after a slight resistance by the French.

PARIS, August 9.—Pailly is in commucation with McMahon. In the battle of the 14th, 15,000 of the enemy attacked 33,000 men under McMahon.
LONDON, August 9.—The Times asserts that the French disasters are owing to the Emperor's obstancy in refusing sound military advice, and to his illness.

The Times says that in France will make the Emperor pay the penalty of his ill success. The Emperor's name is already ignored in acts by which the Regency seeks to rally the people. Things arrange themselves as if he were not expected to resume his power, as if testing how he may be disposed with. Altogether the only question is, who shall first utter the word abdication.
ROME, August 9.—The Embarkation of French troops was completed yesterday.
LONDON, August 9.—According to the Mail Gazette the Empress Eugenie is preparing for flight.

New York, August 10.—Specials from London say, a telegram from Metz speaks undisguis-edly of the calamitous incapacity of the Emperor. Marshall Le Boeuf, and all military leaders comprising the Imperial Staff, are utterly lost confidence in by the army, and a change of command was an absolute necessity to prevent mutiny. Buffet and other members of the Left and Right Centre, signed a requisition for the dissolution of the Ministry and the formation of a new Cabinet with General Trochu at its head.

LONDON, August 10.—The Prussians are organizing volunteers for their naval forces.
The French continue concentrating on the roads to Paris; all that region is in a state of siege. It is said that after the battle of the 16th the French retreated in disorder. Bodies of the Imperial Staff, are utterly lost confidence in by the army, and a change of command was an absolute necessity to prevent mutiny. Buffet and other members of the Left and Right Centre, signed a requisition for the dissolution of the Ministry and the formation of a new Cabinet with General Trochu at its head.

PARIS, August 10.—The Journal Official says an important action has taken place at the front since Sunday. Marshal Canrobert made some reconnoissance with cavalry, which elicited information of the position of the enemy. In one, three squadrons of hussars encountered a detachment of Prussians and drove them back, killing one officer and wounding another.

The Bank of France has reduced the rate of discount to six per cent.
BRUSSELS, August 10.—The rumored naval battle heretofore directed is false.
Banksers decline the Russian war loan, but the people subscribe freely.

The Prussian advance is obstructed by villages filled with French wounded. The French losses exceed all estimates. The Prussians took multitudes of prisoners.
Gen. Chas. Georgiers interview with the Emperor was very satisfactory.

LONDON, August 10.—There is a rumor here that the Prince Imperial will be sent to the French Embassy in London. Other reports assert he has already arrived.

A LACONABLE INCIDENT.—A few days since a colored lad entered a drug store in Portland, with what he described as a "terrible feeling in the stomach, just like it wor full of live-books and angle-worms," and demanded a "Setter powder," as he had been advised that "would give relief. Accordingly the Settler powder was given him in a separate place, as usual and placed before him, with instructions to pour one into the other and drink while effervescing. But the able youth did nothing of the sort. Instead of following the directions, he hastily drank the contents of one glass and immediately swallowed the other. The effect may be imagined, but not described. The effervesence, which should have taken place in the glass before it was drunk, took place in the bewildered drinker's stomach, sending streams of the frothy liquid from his nose, mouth, eyes and ears. As soon as the poor druggist could recover breath, he cried out in frightened tones:
"My stomach has busted; I can't live a minute!" In a few moments he felt better, and, turning to depart, he said: "Dat stuff may work well nuf on de white trash but its sure death on a nigger."

A NEW FLAG ON THE SEAS.—The Canadians have adopted a flag for their dominion, which is thus described by the Halifax, N. S. Ecclesiastical.

The flag of the new Dominion, which is flying from the Government vessels now in port, is the blue ensign with the arms of the Dominion on the fly. The arms on the fly are the arms of each of the provinces constituted in one shield, the shield surrounded by a garland or wreath of maple leaves surmounted by a crown resting on the wreath.
The ensign is pretty, although some people are inclined to think it too foreign looking. The Governor General's flag is the Union Jack, embellished on a shield in the centre. The flag for the Lieutenant Governors of the Provinces is the Union Jack, with the arms of The EMPEROR'S WIFE.—Among the Winemakers in the Champagne district of France there is no name in better repute now, we learn, than that of Bouche, Fils & Co., of Marully, near Ay. Their Napoleon Oblique wine, so called from the fact that the Emperor has long preferred it to all others, is supplying many of the older brands in Europe and United States, and is rapidly coming into general use in British Columbia.

It is the leading wine at Delmonico's and at the recent opening of Pijuz's Hotel in Waverly Place, New York, it was decidedly the favorite among the Commisereurs, journalists and others who were present. Many efforts have been made by American Wine-Growers, in a spirit of honest competition, to rival "the foaming grape of Eastern France," but with limited success; and doubtless for some time to come, it will be preferred for festal occasions to any American manufacture however good. The House of Grolley & Fiorre, Wharf Street, has the agency of this celebrated wine.
